Dear Janet Wilson,

Thank you for your request to publish an excerpt from a Cambridge Scholars Publishing publication. Permission is hereby granted to publish Antipodean Rewritings of Great Expectations: Peter Carey's Jack Maggs (1997) and Lloyd Jones's Mister Pip (2007) from The Shadow of the Precursor as Antipodean Rewritings of Great Expectations: Peter Carey's Jack Maggs (1997) and Lloyd Jones's Mister Pip (2007) in The University of Northampton Institutional Repository subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Credit shall be provided to Cambridge Scholars Publishing as the source of the excerpt. Please include the following line somewhere in your forthcoming text: 'Published with the permission of Cambridge Scholars Publishing'
2. Please note that Cambridge Scholars Publishing may not hold all copyrights for this material, though in most cases the press holds the permission to publish and sell the work, which should be sufficient for most purposes. It is nevertheless your responsibility to contact the author or any other potential copyright holders to ensure that the rights that you have requested are indeed held by the press, and to obtain permission from the actual copyright holders, if any is required.
3. Permission is granted to use the excerpts in the publication referenced herein for worldwide distribution, in the English language, for this edition in hardback, paperback, ebook and all or any subsequent editions of identical or similar format. For translations, or any other unusual formats, specific permission must be sought.
4. The copyright of any third parties must not be infringed as a result of this permission letter, and in the event that it is, Cambridge Scholars Publishing cannot be held responsible and will not in any way be held liable for any consequences.
5. The press will receive one copy of any books in which this material appears for its own collections.
